

1 Natural History Quiz

Ground Floor

All of these animals are vertebrates. They have a backbone in their body.

-  Find the golden eagles.
-  Look closely at them.
-  Golden eagles are birds.
-  Birds have feathers on their bodies.
-  Birds are born out of hard-shelled eggs.
-  Draw a golden eagle in the box.

-  Find the fox.
-  Look closely at it.
-  Foxes are mammals.
-  Mammals have hair on their bodies.
-  Mammals drink milk as babies.
-  Draw the fox in the box.

Find the toad.

Look closely at it.

Toads are amphibians.

Amphibians are born in water and breathe with gills.

Amphibians live on land when they are adults.

Draw the toad in the box.

Find the rainbow trout.

Look closely at it.

It is a fish.

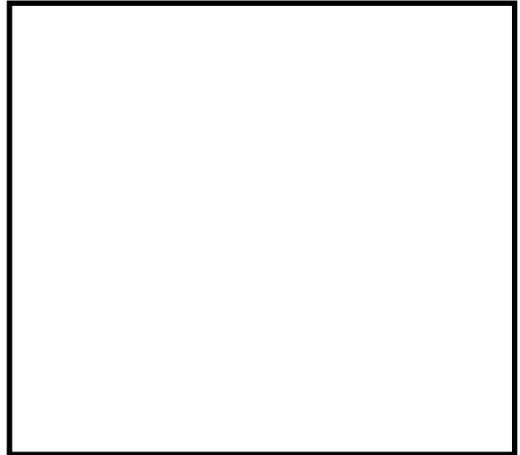

Fish have scales and fins on their bodies.

Fish live in water and breathe with gills.

Draw the fish in the box.

Find the snake.

Look closely at it.

Snakes are reptiles.

Reptiles have scaly skin.

Reptiles are born on land from leathery eggs.

Draw the snake here.

1 Natural History Quiz

First Floor

- Find the robin.
- Birds have feathers on their bodies.
- Its feathers are brown and r__d.

- Find the gull.
- Birds have two legs.
- Its legs are r__d.

- Find the blackbird.
- Birds have beaks.
- Its beak is ye___w.
- Draw its beak in the box.

- Find the starling.
- Some birds have long nails.
- Draw its claws in the box.

- Find the insects on the daisies.
- Insects are invertebrates and have no backbone.
- Draw a butterfly in the box.

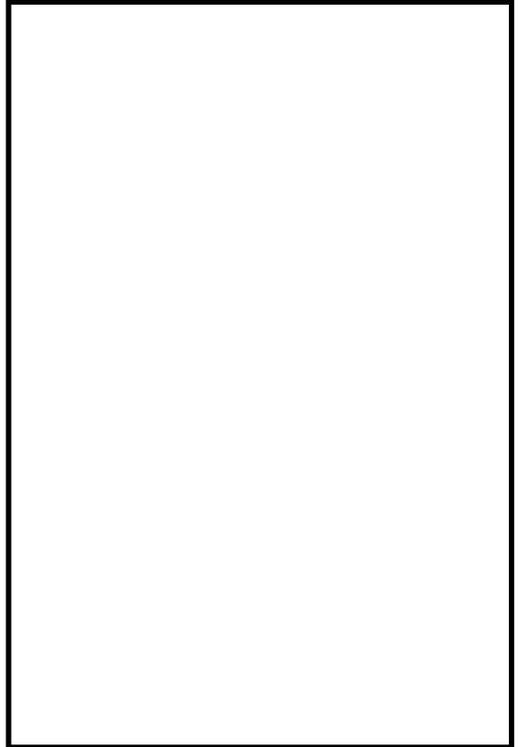

1 Natural History Quiz

Second Floor

-  Find the honey bees in the case.
-  Bees are insects.
-  Insects are invertebrates and have no backbone.
-  Draw the different types of bees.
-  Honey bees live in hives.
-  Look at the old hive, and new hive.
-  Look at the beehives on our windowsill.
-  If it is spring or summer you might see a honey bee!

-  Go inside Oldham Stories and find the owls.
-  Owls are birds.
-  How many owls are there?
4 5 6

-  Which owl is the biggest?
e _____ owl.
-  Which owl is the smallest?
l _____ owl.

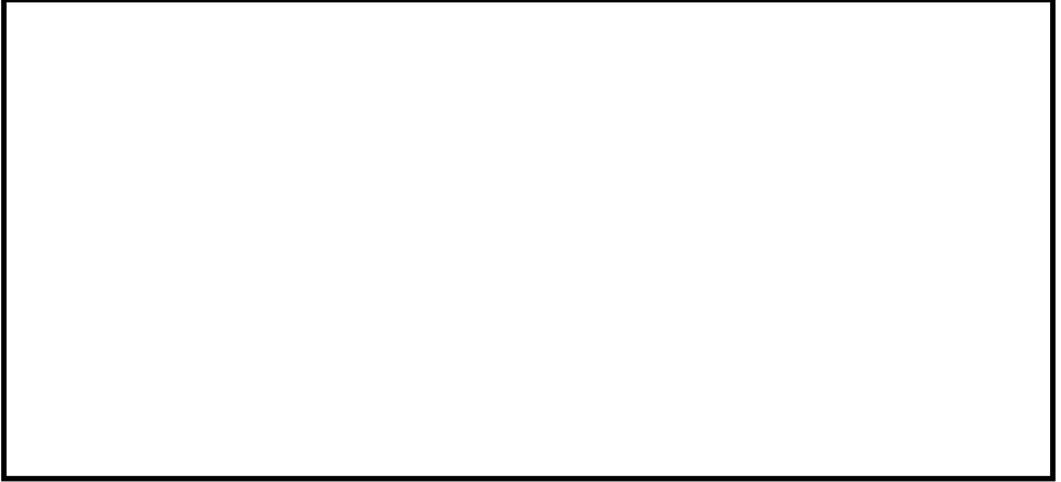

Find the barn owl.

Look carefully at its feathers, beaks, eyes and claws.

Draw the barn owl in the box.

Find the eggs in the case behind you.

Birds are born out of hard-shelled eggs.

Draw some eggs in the box below.

